

OFFICE OF
INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

January 10, 2023

To: Authorized Insurance Companies that wrote Private Passenger Automobile insurance between 2016 and 2020 within Washington state.

Re: The June 25, 2021, request for data relating to claims activity and premium refunds, credit, or reductions.

Pursuant to RCW 48.02.060 and WAC 284-30-650, I, Insurance Commissioner Mike Kreidler, instructed authorized property/casualty insurers on June 25, 2021, to provide certain claim information regarding the private passenger automobile insurance written in Washington state between 2016 and 2020, and details on the types of refunds, credit, or reductions each company may have provided to its insureds in 2020 relating to the COVID-19 pandemic. That data call was suspended on July 19, 2021.

You are hereby notified this data request is permanently cancelled. The Commissioner has decided not to resume this data call, and there is no further need to report the information requested in the June 25, 2021, data call.

If you have any questions, please contact my staff, David Forte, at David.Forte@oic.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mike Kreidler".

Mike Kreidler,
Insurance Commissioner

[Sent electronically]